

Meeting upsets candidate

Gary Warburton seeking a position on Anson, Hindon and Minden council in the coming election said last week that he didn't know how anyone was going to get information out of a discussion like the one planned for the Meet the Candidates night on Tuesday, November 29 when the public was invited to meet the candidates in an informal setting.

Mr. Warburton said that there should be an open discussion with candidates answering questions from the floor. He would like to have the chance to address the meeting as a whole and said that if he had been on council he would welcome questions about what had been done in the past term.

Mr. Warburton also noted that Tuesday was a poor time to hold the meet the candidates night since it wouldn't give the press time to publish information from the meeting to the public. He wondered why the present council was afraid to have an open discussion.

Present councillors said last week that they were satisfied with the informal style set for the meeting.

Reeve Reg Booth noted when the meeting was arranged that while he does not mind having to stand and speak, some members of the council are not comfortable in that situation.

Robert Gorrie, incumbent councillor who is running for the position of deputy reeve, explained that the Meet the Candidates night held two years ago with a formal set-up resulted in candidates being under fire from the floor. Mr. Gorrie said that the atmosphere became one of a theatre or a comedy. He said that questions that were asked were not the ones that should have been asked, but were demands for facts and figures that the candidates did not have.

The meeting held at the last election was not useful, Mr. Gorrie said, and council had decided on the informal arrangement in the hopes that it would be better. Alan Coneybeare, councillor said that he expects the meeting will be better informal, rather than having councillors up like "ducks in a gallery."

With respect to the date of the meeting, present council members noted that every night of the week is busy and that they had not considered Tuesday to be any different.

Floyd Miller is back with Lutterworth

Floyd Miller, Road Superintendent for Lutterworth Township, has offered to continue working for the municipality and the offer has been accepted by council by phone, though not be resolution, according to Reeve Patrick Conaghan.

Earlier this fall, Mr. Miller submitted a resignation to council dated October 15. No reason was given at that time for his decision.

Mr. Miller indicated this week that he had spoken to Reeve Conaghan and offered to stay on with the municipality, but that he would not know that his offer had been officially accepted until the next Lutterworth council meeting.

Conaghan wants explanation of audit results

Lutterworth Reeve Patrick Conaghan said this week that he is still expecting an explanation from the provincial government regarding the matter of results of a provincial government audit of the township that was released to the press before it was given to Lutterworth Council.

Lutterworth Councillors are objecting that they have passed no resolution in support of seeking an apology from the ministries involved as suggested by a the municipality for maintenance of Lutterworth equipment, gave the municipality and province fair value for their money.

Since there was no indication of fraud the Ministry of Treasury, Economics and Intergovernmental Affairs had decided not to inquire further into the matter, thinking that interest in the matter will die with the present term of office according to an unidentified spokesman for the ministry. Reeve Conaghan noted his circulated to plumbing and electrical companies in the area by mail.

Fire Chief William [Deac] Jackson reported to council on the progress of fire hall construction. The approaches have been finished, a 2,000 gallon holding tank has been installed, telephone wires are in and the doors were nearly completed except for a sealer, as of Friday.

Council also discussed the need for a new fire truck, a tanker equipped with a pump that would ensure fire protection for areas not adjacent to the lakes. The cost of the truck would be 100 per cent upon the municipality, but council noted the money would not be coming this year. As Mr. Jackson suggested, a quotation is to be prepared for the municipality to see what would have to be budgeted.

Councillor Helen Johnson noted after the meeting that with the amount of money that is being spent on new seasonal and permanent homes in the area, the municipality feels that it is responsible for providing adequate fire prevention.

Sisson pleads guilty to theft of $2,800

Ronald Sisson charged on September 16 with the theft of approximately $2,800 from his grandfather's home appeared before the Provincial court in Minden on Monday and entered a plea of guilty.

The money had been left in a purse under a blanket on a bed in an upstairs bedroom, and was reported missing when the family returned from church.

On Sept. 27, Ronald Sisson was asked about the theft. He said that he had taken the money to the Haliburton dump and had thrown away the purse.

Of the total amount of $2,815, only $35 was not recovered.

The matter has been put over to Dec. 21 by which time a pre-sentence report will have been prepared and sentence will be given.

Minden versus Haliburton

Cross county rivals, the Minden Walker's Lumber Midgets will be facing one of their toughest oppositions in the Haliburton Beaconbrook Midgets tomorrow night in Minden.

Both teams are off to a good start this season with Haliburton featuring the top scorers in the league.

Elected to the executive of the Minden Agricultural Society at the annual meeting on Wednesday, November 24 were Bev Connolly, [standing left] assistant secretary-treasurer, Jeanie Nesbitt, [standing right] the first vice president, Yvonne Beaucage [seated left] second vice president and Helen Johnson, secretary treasurer. The position of president, which according to the constitution is to be filled by a man, was not decided at the meeting.

Fair board decides to change event date

The date of the Haliburton County Fair has been changed as a result of a decision of the Minden Fair Board at the annual meeting held Nov. 24.

The date set for the fair now stands at August 13 and 14 of 1977, two weeks earlier than the date of this year's fair.

It is hoped that the change in date will improve attendance at the fair, since it will no longer conflict with the C.N.E., and more vacationers will be in the area at the earlier time.

A major consideration in the decision is that exhibits and shows will be able to come this way from Peterborough Fair which ends on the weekend that the Minden Fair is now scheduled to begin.

The earlier date will also mean that Robertson's Snows can be engaged for the midway, since they are in the area to service the Minden and the Haliburton Summer Carnivals on the two weekends prior to the 13th and 14th. There have been unfortunate experiences with the midway over the last few years, according to the Agricultural Society president, Richard Parisotto, and it is hoped that the new arrangements will change that.

It was noted at the meeting as well that while Minden Fair competes with 10 to 13 fairs at its usual date, the new date will mean that there are only three or four others running at the same time.

Elections for the position of President, first and second vice presidents Secretary treasurer and assistant secretary treasurer were also carried out by the Board of directors, made up of virtually everyone at the meeting.

Richard Parisotto, for three years, expressed a desire to step down from the position, in order that the board have a fresh person at its head. In spite of opposition, he declined to serve as president again, pointing out that he could still assist as past president. Nominations for the position of president are still open, and will be decided at the next meeting of the board.

Elected to the position of first vice president is Jeanie Nesbitt. Yvonne Beaucage was elected as second vice president. Helen Johnson accepted another term as secretary-treasurer with Bev Connolly as assistant.

Gentlemen at the meeting were warned that it is no longer a man's world. The position of president, is, however, open only to them, according to the constitution.

County Library System honors 10 yr. members

The County and Library Board.

A warm and comfortable dinner was held on Thursday at the Fireside in Minden to honor members of the Haliburton County Library system who have helped improve the libraries.

Many of those who received recognition for 10 years of service have actually served even longer.

Ada Lewis, who has been interested in library work for almost 50 years, and who was a librarian in Minden in the 1920's, started in 1965 as an assistant to Jean Sears at the library in Minden. Mrs. Lewis still walks from Hyland Crest two or three days a week to work at the library.

Jean Sears has helped with the Minden Library for over 20 years. She was chairman of the Minden Library Board before the County Library system began in 1965 and has been active on the County board since.

Roy Brohm was also honored at the dinner. As well as working in the community on municipal government for many years, Mr. Brohm was instrumental in establishing the County Library Board, and served as chairman for a number of years.

Marg Pickens, who began her work at the Gooderham library in very cramped quarters, is now operating that branch from new facilities continuing her many years of volunteer service.

The present secretary manager of the County Library Mary Packard, has been working with the Haliburton Library since she helped Noel McNeil there before 1966. Mrs. Packard has helped with the County system since 1966, and so has just completed a full 10 years of service under the County system.

Bessie Croft, the librarian at the Wilberforce branch, has worked in three different buildings over the years. She now works out of a beautiful new building, and has established the library as a very active centre in the community, sponsoring craft shows, movies and community gatherings.

Assisting at the Monmouth Library is Winnie Schofield, who began with the library when it was still located in Tory Hill under Mrs. Garth Anderson. Moved in 1966 to Wilberforce, Winnie Schofield has done a great deal for the promotion of the library through floats and parade work, and through her interest in the history of the area which she was able to exhibit in the 1974, the centennial year of the county.

Members of the County Library Board who were at the dinner also presented Heather Gardiner, past county librarian, with a going away gift for her greatly appreciated work with the library. Marilyn Stouffer of the Library Board made the presentation. Mary Packard has noted that Mrs. Gardiner has done a great deal for the promotion of the Haliburton system outside of the county, that she literally put Haliburton on the map by her work with provincial committees. She first served on the Board four years ago, and has been County librarian for three and half years. Mrs. Gardiner's resignation, tendered last spring, was accepted by the Board in October. Mrs. Gardiner is leaving the position since she has moved out of the area.

The dinner guests were greeted by Reg Booth, chairman of the Board, and greetings from the County were given by Warden Gerry Howarth. Mr. Howarth congratulated all of the honored guests for having reached a milestone of 10 years in service.

Ken Beers points out what he liked best of the goods to be had at the bazaar and bake sale held Saturday at The Recorder office. Proceeds from the sale went to the Minden Figure Skating Club. The Main Street location took in more than $200. which will go towards ice time for the club. It was a great success and the first time that the club has held a bazaar. Ken was by no means the only one who saw something he wanted to take home.

Restructuring needed as soon as possible

We hear that restructuring and zoning are still main issues in Stanhope Township and we must agree.

Politicians in that area that claim restructuring and zoning is needed are right. No doubt the provincial government will give the township the opportunity to do it themselves for some time but eventually will just take over.

By taking over we mean they will take complete control of the destiny of Stanhope, as they will in other municipalities that do not take charge to govern their own affairs.

No municipality can survive without proper planning, a reality that has been found out by the provincial government. As their part the province has attempted to find ways to get proper planning in the many municipalities in Ontario.

Stanhope and other municipalities should keep working for planning because they will either do it their way or the province's way. We would prefer the local government remain local.

the history

The autobiography of Lawrence Pritchard, reads a little like what has happened in the Minden area during the past 80 or so years.

Mr. Pritchard has meant a great deal to Minden and over the years has served the community well. Most of us who have lived in Minden for any length of time consider Mr. Pritchard a friend and no doubt he makes every attempt to be a friend of all of us.

The Recorder printed the first part of his autobiography last week and will continue the story in the next couple of issues.

The Recorder would like to express thanks to Mr. Pritchard for what he has done for Minden and second of all thank him for allowing us to print his story.

Letters to the Editor

Editor,

As an owner of a summer cottage on Moore Lake in Lutterworth Township, I read with extreme interest the publication by the Lutterworth Ratepayers Association [attached] concerning the 66 foot road allowance on lakefront property.

My long history of attempting to obtain a building permit for construction of a porch on my cottage is too wordy for this letter. It suffices to say that my original request was in October 1975 and many forms, visits to Township offices, a special 240 mile trip to meet with the Bylaw Enforcement Officer and numerous telephone calls and letters later, I am now currently in receipt of a letter dated 14 October, 1976 advising me of the 66 foot road allowance and therefore my permit application is rejected by Council.

I have been sitting in dismay since, wondering why without question, I pay $202.95 taxes for no road maintenance in winter or summer, a long drive to the garbage dump, I assume very little fire or police protection, and no use of the schools; only to find out that I do not own my lakefront property and hence cannot add a porch. The first thought I had and still have is, why would the Council of Lutterworth not be concerned and take immediate action to resolve this road allowance problem, thereby encouraging development rather than displaying apparent apathy towards the problem?

As a result, I am pleased to see a slate of Council candidates who wish to act now! Surely, all voters in Lutterworth Township must wish to have their Township develop, thereby relieving the tax load for all. In order to accomplish this, Council must act and resolve such constraints to development, like this 66 foot lakefront road allowance.

My support for the December 6, 1976 election is Patrick Conaghan for Reeve, A.O. Shingler for Deputy Reeve, and N. Ronald Gambell and Major Glynne Lewis for Council. I am sure all Lutterworth voters agree.

Dear Sir,

I would like to correct an item that appeared in the column headed "Coboconk News" and it's with regard to our "pets in the river" - namely the ducks. This was in the Oct. 27th issue.

I have a store in Shepherd's Mini-Mall and this Mall opened May 21st this year and ever since that time the ducks have been very well fed and have ended up staying on this side of the river.

The tourists, as mentioned in your paper, thoroughly enjoy the antics of these feathered friends and they go out of their way to feed them.

Therefore, we have a jar in the Mall for donations for ducks food and we have been kindly supplied with grain by Mr. and Mrs. George Shepherd, the owners of the Mall.

The tourists bought the grain and fed our little pets but now with summer gone, there's not many tourists left but the ducks have multiplied. Therefore, Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd still bring in grain and the town people plus ourselves donate to the fund and we make certain the ducks are fed each day - if not by customers, then by one of us.

We enjoy the ducks and would never see them starve but we would like to ask anyone who feeds them here at the Mall, to take the food toward the water. Our little feathered friends like their food in the water and we are trying to train them to eat there. The reason for this is that they have become so tame they stand in front of the entranceway and refuse to move and it's quite a challenge to go outside with a broom and a pail of water and clean up after 50 ducks. We want to see them fed but we would like to re-locate their washroom facilities!

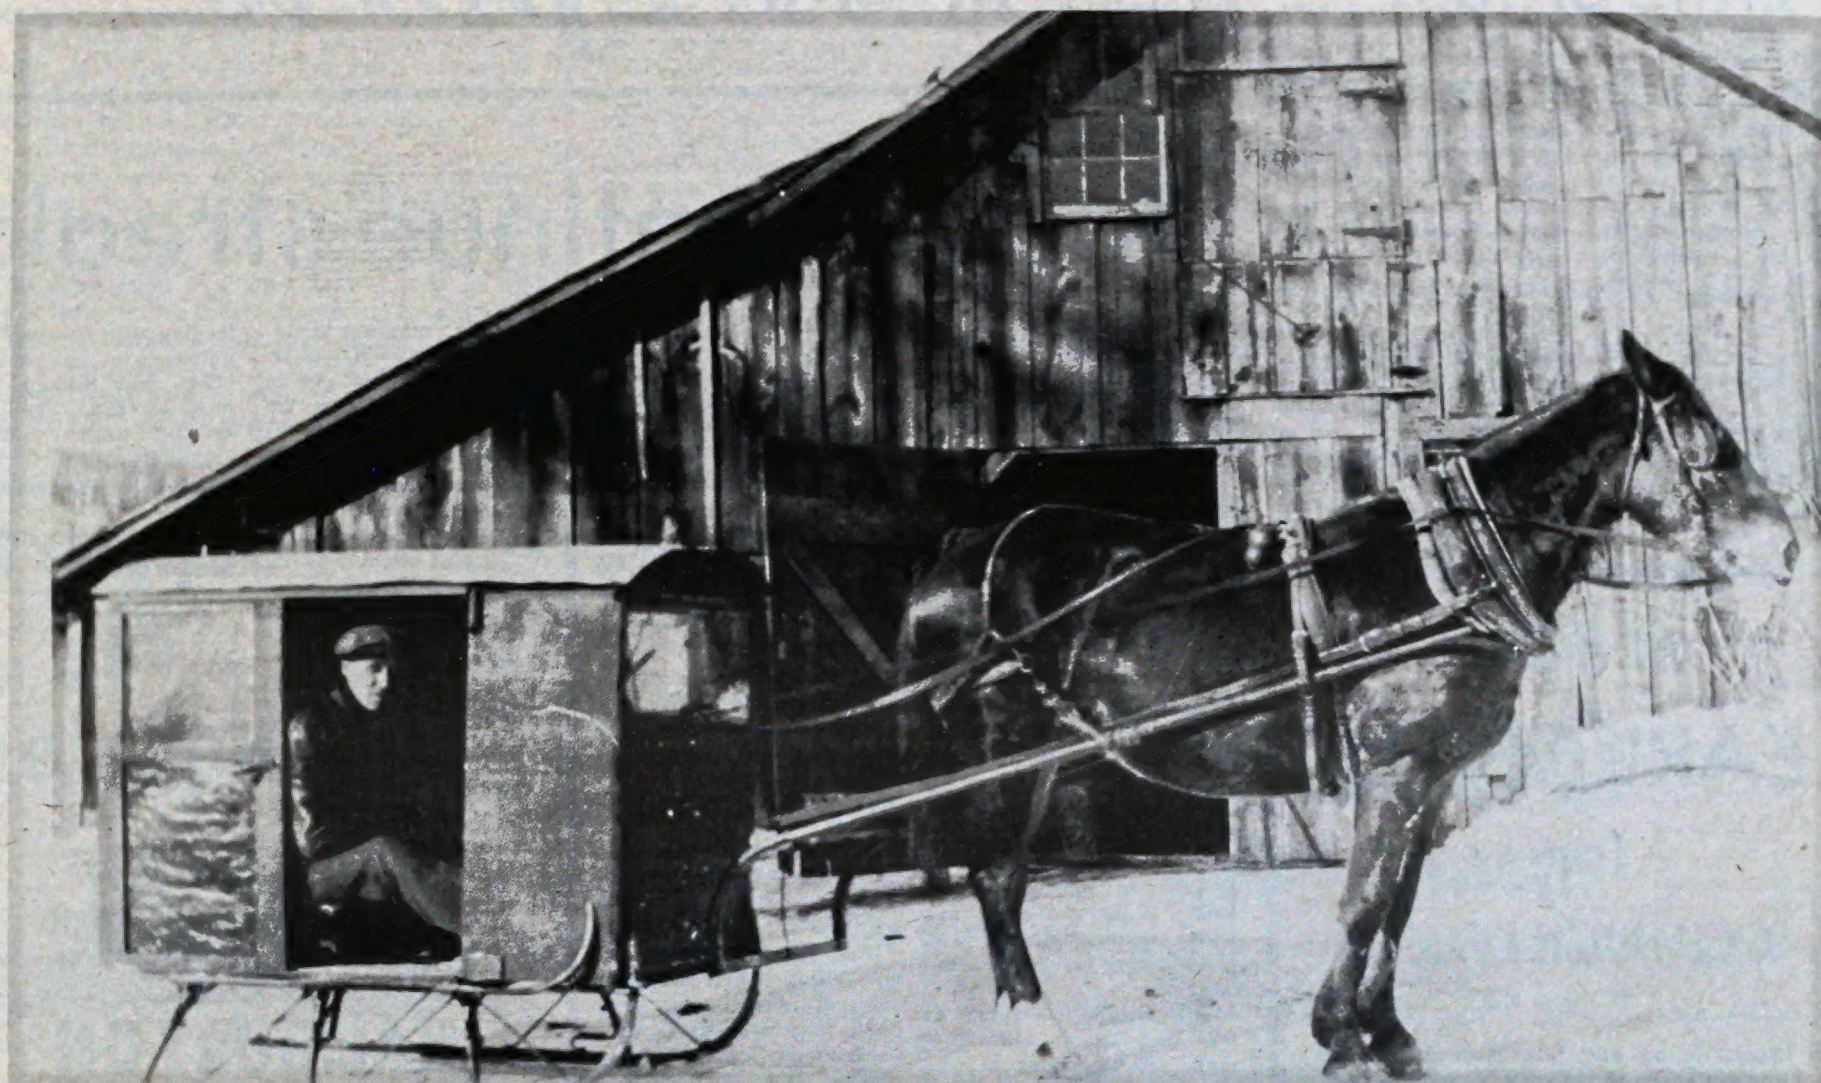

Thank you for listening to me and thanks to everyone who helps to keep our "pets" happy.

Christmas mail may soon be a problem, but whatever the problems are, they will not be the same as experienced by this man, the second rural mail courier for Minden. The gentleman is probably familiar to most Minden residents, but rather than give his name, has invited

Inside the Recorder

by Susan McLaughlin

Last Wednesday night, I spent some time at the Fair Board meeting at the municipal offices, and I really enjoyed it.

More people should come out to gatherings like that. Of course, if more people did or had come out, I wouldn't have had as much fun.

I enjoyed it because everyone there was so open and honest about the fact that they were going to do their best to get you working for them.

Most groups readily admit that they need more people to help out, but usually it takes a certain length of time and a good deal of strategy before you find that you have been finagled into a position of major or minor responsibility.

At the Fair Board meeting, everyone who signed the attendance sheet became a director.

I had no idea that it would be so easy, even painless, to become involved in something that I know nothing about. It was so surprising that I really had to laugh. I don't think many others minded very much either, although they probably knew more about it than I did.

I have, I'm afraid, few concrete ideas about how the Fair Board goes about its business. I started here after the fair was finished for 1976, and so have not yet seen the end product of the Fair Board's labors. The only thing I'm sure of is that I'll learn something before the business is over.

I hope that no one reading this minds that one of the directors of the Fair Board is so unknowledgeable. I was only put on one committee although I was a bit apprehensive, leaving the meeting before it was over as I did, about the possibility of ending up with my name on any number of committees. I don't know how committee workers were chosen, but if it was anything like the way we all became directors, it was at least mercifully quick.

I don't think, in the long run, that there can be much trouble working with a group that, whatever failings it may have [and I don't know what those might be, by the way], is honest. The Fair Board needs help, and with methods like theirs, they got it.

It all should show that all you have to do to become involved is turn out to a meeting or two, of the Fair Board or anything else. There was certainly no problem in joining up to help out with the fair. From what I hear, it is a growing thing, or should be. All they lack is more people.

Organizations like this one always ask for help and so it gets to the point where it's easy not to believe it when they ask. It is another fact that the bigger a group gets, the more they can think of doing and the more people they need all the time. It becomes almost necessary to self survival to turn a deaf ear now and then.

But all the same, I wonder how many people realize how painless it can be to get involved. I've been fished in before in my time, but never as quickly or in such a good spirit as last Wednesday night.

'Tis the season for bazaars, and for looking over all the crafts and baked goods that seem to appear as if by magic especially for the time of year.

I for one, drool over the pieces of needlework, crochet, delicate hand knit sweaters, carefully stitched clothing and fascinating trinkets much longer than I drool over the baked goods.

I realize, when it comes to baking, that things don't happen by magic. One measures, sifts, tastes, adjusts the recipe, puts whatever it is on to cook and ends up with something that is usually edible.

When it comes to sewing or handicrafts, though, the magic begins. I don't think that I ever made one felt book mark when I was a child that did not show more glue than felt. I have rarely stitched a seam that was not torn out again.

Very often if I finish something and then take a good look at it, I find that all or parts of it are backwards.

The crafts, to my mind then, are made by magic. I know [or would like to think] that they take a special knack, a knack that I don't have.

To those who created the pieces of handiwork I've seen lately, I suspect it didn't feel like magic but like time consuming work, no matter how enjoyable.

Having warmed up the subject, I could now mention that one of the front windows of The Recorder office on Main Street is available to any non-profit organization that has a function of any kind to advertise. Posters, crafts, trophies or whatever are welcome. Just remember as the handiwork goes in that my complex about being the creator of those gluey book marks as a child goes on.

Midgets blast Little Britain

David Brown led the way in scoring as Minden's Walker's Lumber O.M.H.A. Midget walked over Little Britain to a 14-0 win on Saturday.

With four assists and three goals, Shaw was the top scorer, but was joined by other good scorers for the team, Brian Shaw with three goals and one assist and Dan Allison who put in the first goal, the last, with two assists.

The Minden team scored only once in the first period at the 9:50 mark. The second period brought five more with good team effort. In the third period, Little Britain with its short lineup was too tired to stop Minden and the score climbed by 8 more goals to the total of 14.

Both teams took their share of penalties, with five going to Little Britain, including one game misconduct in the second period. Minden picked up four penalties, two in the second and two in the third.

Mike Bird was in the net for Minden, and played consistently well. Other scorers in the game were Kevin Newell, Jim Hatkoski and John Farsworth.

Atoms continue streak

This weekend was tops around for Minden's Yake's Electric/Red and White O.M.H.A. Atom as they chalked up their sixth and seventh straight wins.

Saturday at 1:30 Minden met Beaverton, as Bill McGee put one in at the 6:04 minute mark. Minden waited till near the end of the first period before Scott Hamilton managed to score from Kevin Warburton and Jeff Stamp at 12:43. That goal was followed closely by one at 13:54 by Scott Yake, also from Warburton and Stamp that put Minden in the lead.

There was no more scoring until late in the second period when Kevin Warburton got a shot away at 12:06. At 12:35 Jeff Stamp scored the last goal in the game.

There was lots of action in the third period, and both teams played well. The Minden Atoms really work as a team, but had all the goals they were going to have that day.

It was a good game with few penalties, three going to Minden and Beaverton taking two.

The Yake's Electric/Red and White Atoms, though, had only just begun their good weekend. They were back on the ice on Sunday playing Ops. The scoring was close, but Minden kept the lead, ending the game 4-3.

The first goal was put in by Doug Schell from Scotty Hamilton. Jeff Stamp took number two and Kevin Warburton number three, assisted by Scotty Hamilton.

Kevin Warburton put in the last goal just before the end of the game. It was close all along, with Ops leading with one and a half minutes to go. Minden's effort came through in the nick of time, and their seventh straight win was accomplished.

The Wings at HHSS

On the Thames River in the city of London there stands a very unique charity home known as "The Wings". But for our purposes the location of "The Wings" has been moved to H.H.S.S. in hopes that you will visit its occupants in our stage production of Noel Coward's "Waiting in the Wings."

With the help of a seemingly useless committee and a few staff members, "The Wings" shelters a number of retired actresses who are still waiting for their final exits.

This production which portrays a year in the lives of these ladies involves a hot tempered Irish woman who always speaks her mind, an age old feud, a newspaper article which infuriates the ladies but which solves a problem, a gentleman caller with his violets and his love for one of the women and the harmless old lady who almost destroys "The Wings."

It promises to be a play filled with the laughter and tears of everyday living and the feelings of those who are waiting - "Waiting in the Wings."

Report from Queen's Park By MPP John Eakins

The Provincial Treasurer has announced that the Government will extend for an indefinite period the exemption of the 7% sales tax on production machinery and equipment bought by private industry, and will extend the exemption to include equipment for pollution control or the removal of waste and noxious fumes. This continued sales tax exemption will cost $10 million in the last quarter of the current fiscal year, and an estimated $160 million in 1977-78. The Government's objective is to attract job creating capital to the province, and to maintain the competitive footing of the province and Ontario firms in bidding for investment and business against our principal rivals, including the province of Quebec and the states of New York, Minnesota and Pennsylvania. Even with the extension of the sales tax exemption beyond the original December 31st cut-off date, the provincial sales tax burden on a new plant opening in Ontario still would be more than twice the sales taxes levied in Michigan and Ohio.

At the same time, the Treasurer also tabled documents which he maintained showed that the federal government's anti inflation program has been a success in Ontario during its first year of operation.

During debate on the family law reform legislation, the Attorney General stressed that caution was necessary, because if courts could override provisions of marriage contracts, the result would be that the courts instead of the parties involved would be writing the contracts. Some opposition members suggested modifying a section of the act to allow a court to alter support obligations of a contract. The Attorney General said he would consider such an amendment. Now that it has passed second reading, the legislation will go to committee for detailed examination before going back to the Legislature for third and final reading in the spring.

Also this week, the Attorney General stated that he is convening a meeting of regional Crown Attorneys to instruct them in the matter of court authorizations, which should not be released. Albert Roy, Liberal MPP for Ottawa East had produced a copy of an authorization to wire tap, to demonstrate that the Government had gone against established practice in not releasing the authorization in the case of the wiretap carried out on a conversation between Donald Turner and his lawyer.

Liberal Pat Reid criticized the Solicitor-General for doing nothing while organized crime escalated in Ontario, and called for an inquiry saying the inquiry in Quebec into organized crime had exposed some of the ringleaders. He pointed out that it is generally agreed that publicity is one of the most effective weapons in dealing with this problem. However, the Minister maintained that organized crime, while a serious problem, high on the list of police priorities, does not warrant a public inquiry. See you next week.

Teachers' pay is not Ont. lowest

School trustee Leonard Salvatori is concerned about a statement arising out of last week's Stanhope meet the candidates night that the Haliburton County Board of Education pays the lowest teachers' salaries in Ontario. Mr. Salvatori said that the statement is incorrect and might give the wrong impression of the Board and its attitude.

The Board does not pay the lowest teachers' salaries, Mr. Salvatori noted, it pays one of the lowest average salaries in the province.

Since the Haliburton Board employs a number of first and second year teachers who do not draw as large a salary, the average across the County is lower than it would be if all the teachers had been working for the Board for a greater number of years.

It is the number of teachers in lower pay categories that keeps the salary average of the Haliburton Board low, and not the design of the Board to create "a bright spot" in paying teachers the lowest salaries.

Guilty in absentia

John Packard of Haliburton was tried and found guilty in absentia on Nov. 23 in the Provincial court in Minden.

A plea of not guilty was entered on his behalf by the court for charges of careless driving, failure to report an accident and operating an unsafe vehicle.

The OPP had been called to an accident on October 14 on highway 519 near Haliburton. The vehicle was found in the east ditch and there were tire marks for about 300 feet on the pavement. The car had crossed the road, a private drive, passed through a field, a fence and hit a telephone pole.

The accused was not at the site of the accident the evidence stated, but did contact the detachment the next day. He gave a statement that he had fallen asleep and did not notice a lack of control until he hit the pole. The tires of the vehicle were completely bald the officer stated.

Since there was no defence there was a finding of guilty on all three charges.

The Judge called for fines of $200 and $3 costs for conviction of careless driving $50 and $3 costs for failure to report the accident and $50 and costs for operating an unsafe vehicle.

YES! We're still Open.

From the Chamber

by Bob Stinson

We generally like to keep this column on a positive note but sometimes you can't avoid getting a little depressed. Maybe the recent turn of events in the Quebec provincial election has something to do with it. On top of that our own municipal election does nothing to lift the spirits. The fact that there are 19 candidates being elected by acclamation including the entire slate in one municipality is an indication of far too much apathy in our county. A number of these acclamations show a vote of confidence in the incumbent representative, which is fine, but on the other hand in many cases it is just a matter of the lack of a willing candidate to provide actively search out good people to provide the electors with a choice in the next election.

We are presently doing battle once again with the Ministry of Industry and Tourism. After convincing them we should be on the map they now are intent on removing our identification from the side of the highways. The ministry has announced that the "You are now entering" signs for all tourist regions will be removed and identification only be given to travel associations such as "Central Ontario". Every tourist council in our area is determined to strongly oppose this backward step.

The Chamber of Commerce needs your support on the upcoming elimination draw dance. The chamber has attempted to carry out their full programme this year in spite of the fact that were not fully funded. Fund raising projects such as this were necessary to close the gap. Please support your chamber by participating and you may even win $1,000.00 All tickets must be sold in advance, so contact our office or a director in your area. Don't forget you can ride the bus to and from the dance.

We are now closing off memberships and advertising for the 1977 "Lure" book, so, if you have been considering joining us and haven't done so, now is the time to get in touch if you wish to be in time for this year's book. A new category has been established for clubs and associations for only $20.00 per year. The first group to take advantage of this opportunity was the newly formed Haliburton Area React Team [H.A.R.T.] set up by C.B. Radio enthusiasts Keith Prior, Wally Bunn, Steve Bodmore and Jack Roberts. As a member of REACT International they will monitor channel 9 in this area and work in co-operation with police and ambulance staff to provide emergency communications where required. A very worthwhile project.

We see that "Classified Directory Publishers Inc." are once again sending out invoice and forms for their "Directory." Some time ago we discussed this company and pointed out that the only recipients of their directory are the people who buy the listings. Hardly value for your money.

Our phone books are now being distributed at Paudash General Store and Hutton's General Store over on Highway 28. We have also approached the Bancroft Chamber of Commerce to handle them for us.

Two weeks ago we mentioned that the Bailey family had taken over Carnarvon Lumber, but we inadvertently omitted Johnston Bailey's name from the group. Our apologies Johnston.

Cases before the court

Tuesday, Nov. 23 was a first appearance day at the Provincial court in Minden.

A number of cases came before the court to arrange dates for trial.

Since no duty counsel was available, a number of charges were put over to another day or until such time as those facing charges had an opportunity to speak to a lawyer. Cases being handled by Ted Gardiner were also put over, as Mr. Gardiner was unable to be present.

Thomas Kelley of Toronto, represented by Gardiner, was charged with driving while prohibited, has been adjourned to January 11, 1977.

Judith Cowan of RR 2 Haliburton who was to be tried on charges of taking an automobile without consent and driving while prohibited had her case remanded to December 21.

Charged with possession of narcotics for the purpose of trafficking, Frederick Neil of Whitby, was remanded to January 11 to be spoken to. The judge noted that the charge was serious in nature and that Neil should have the opportunity of speaking to counsel.

Wilfred Browne of Toronto, facing charges of impaired driving and driving with more than .08 per cent alcohol in the blood, was referred to Dec. 21 to set a date for trial.

In court to answer the same charges, Douglas McClure of Minden was remanded to Dec. 21 for trial.

A case concerning Colin Lee of Toronto who faces a charge of perjury has been set over to March 29, 1977 for trial.

David R. Bell of Minden, charged with theft over $200 will return to court on Dec. 21 to set a trial date.

Three Bancroft youths, James Brown, John Lavoy and Kenneth Bruce who were to be sentenced Nov. 23 on multiple charges of wilful damage and mischief, have been referred to January 11 for sentence. Bruce was unable to appear in court and the judge ruled that all three should be sentenced together. It was also noted that there were more inquiries to be made before sentence. The three were warned that each would pay restitution of $175 and $38 in court costs.

Todd Keast of Toronto will set a date for trial on Dec. 21 for charges of driving with an open container of liquor in his vehicle, impaired driving and driving with over .08 per cent alcohol blood level.

Donald Reil of Gooderham charged with mischief will also set a date for trial on Dec. 21.

Mistake

Our sincere apologies to Gwen Cox, president of the Ladies Auxilliary of the Royal Canadian Legion, Haliburton who was incorrectly identified in last week's paper.

Gwen Cox was mentioned as Gwen Hughes in connection with her part in the presentation of three Golden Anniversary Service Medals that were awarded on Friday November 20.

We hope there has been no inconvenience caused.

Dear Editor

We would like to take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks to the Minden Recorder for kindly donating the use of their office for our Bazaar and Bake Sale coming Nov. 27, 1976.

In the past our news media and business people have never hesitated to donate in various ways to make our fund raising projects a success. Many people would work extensively behind the scenes but it would all be in vain without the means of bringing it to the public attention, through donated advertising space. All proceeds go to the Minden Figure Skating Club, a non-profit organization and worthwhile community effort for our young people.

Many thanks to all our supporters.

Mr. Editor

Congratulations seem to be the order of this day to our Reeve Reg Booth by holding on to the helm of our ship for another term and he must of done a good job last term in office to be acclaimed by the people of Anson, Hindon and Minden. A steady hand on the wheel means a great deal these days of unemployment and instability. Keep up the good work "Reg". Let's not forget that Len Lonsberry is running for Council this term, also a vote for "Bob Gorrie" as deputy reeve should set up a very good Council for 1977 with a back up by Helen Johnson and Al Coneybeare, "Cub."

Lots of luck on a good Council,

John Hampson

Investigate 8 collisions

The Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police investigated eight motor vehicle collisions and 44 general occurrences during the week of Nov. 22 to 28.

During that time there were two break-ins investigated, one compassionate message delivered, five persons charged with liquor licence act violations, three persons charged with impaired driving and one person charged under the Narcotic Control Act.

A single vehicle accident Friday at noon resulted in $900 damage to a tractor trailer.

The vehicle was driven by Ernie Sims, 33 of Haliburton was southbound on Haliburton Lake Road when it was unable to make it up a hill. The Minden detachment of the OPP report that when the driver reversed the vehicle it lost power of its airbrake and entered the east ditch, where it jack knifed and flipped on to its side.

A single car accident in the same area just a few minutes earlier also resulted in $900 damage.

A car driven by Austin Jeffries, 29, of Agincourt was northbound on the road when the driver saw a truck stopped. The Opp report that he applied the brakes and slid into the right ditch striking a rock.

A two vehicle crash Thursday morning resulted in $500 damage to a truck driven by Garth Henderson, 43, of RR1 Haliburton and $1,200 damage to a car driven by Susanne Ripley, 24 of RR 1 Haliburton.

Property tax proposals

During discussion on the estimates of the Ministry of Industry and Tourism, John Eakins, MPP Victoria Haliburton, questioned Claude Bennett about the effect of the property tax proposals on the tourist business.

Mr. Eakins, who was the lead-off speaker for the Ontario Liberal Party, expressed the concern of the many people in the Victoria Haliburton area who had written to him.

Mr. Eakins said, "I would like to know how the Minister feels about the effects that the proposed property tax reforms will have on the province's tourist facilities if those proposals are implemented in their present form. When Tourism Ontario appeared before the Willis Blair Commission they warned the members that our present tourist slump could worsen with these proposals if business tax is increased on hotels, motels and resorts. Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: This is one for the books, but I swear it's true. After 40 years of marriage, my mother-in-law left her husband and ran off with a younger guy.

She just wrote to tell us that she and her fellow are coming through town and would like to stay with us for about a week.

My husband (her son) says whatever I decide is okay with them. We have only one guest room to put up the two of them.

What do we do? Our teenage kids know about Grandma and her boyfriend, but can we have them sleeping together in our home?

In the past you've told parents if their college kids who are shacking up away from home want to bring their roommates home for a visit, they have to abide by the same standards. But how do you handle a shacking-up grandma?

STICKY WICKET

DEAR WICKET: The same way you'd handle a shacking-up college kid.

DEAR ABBY: Every time you advise someone to "get unshacking," I pray that your advice will be followed because I am living proof of how much good counseling can accomplish.

I learned through counseling to know myself and to accept myself. I discovered that what I felt, good or bad, is real and okay. I learned that approval was fine, but it isn't necessary in order to feel good about myself.

I keep a motto on my desk at work that explains my attitude about life now. It says: "I WONDERED WHY SOMEBODY DIDN'T DO SOMETHING. THEN I REALIZED THAT I WAS SOMEBODY." (Anonymous) Thanks for listening. God bless you, Abby, and all the people who listen to you.

Autobiography

Lawrence Pritchard

In 1928 I was sworn in as County Constable; there were 4 in the County, one at each of Dorset, Haliburton, Gooderham and Minden. Those were the days before there was a provincial man in the county. Two beer parlours in town, no liquor store but lots of swamp liquor around. Major Warren was the first provincial police in the County, stationed at Haliburton. He had no car, and would phone me to drive him wherever he wanted to go. He used to pay the mileage but when he left the county he forgot his last bill for the car $65.00. I resigned from police work in 1946 but I only got one black eye in the 18 years. Before I left the farm I started to auctioneer in 1921. Had to give this up in 1971. Over 500 sales over the years. The hardest sale I had was Earl Hewitts Garage; started at 12 noon and finished at 9 p.m. that evening, only 1 glass of water and a 2 x 4 sandwich. In 1929 I started working for Ontario Government on roads in Haliburton and northern Victoria County Townships for roads, ditches etc. In 1930 the Highway 35 was started, 13 road camps were built from the boundary in the south to Dorset in the north. Each camp had around 30 men, a cook and a helper or two chore boys to look after the camps. In the winter I drove the surveyors and bossess around and also looked after camps and looked after the supplies for the blacksmith shop. All rock-drilling was done by hand. 2 men with 8 lb. hammers and 1 man to keep turning the drill. It kept the blacksmith busy sharpening drills. The working men got $5 a month with bed and board, man and team $2.50 per day and had to furnish his horses with feed and wagons if needed.

Teams got 2 weeks each. At one time I had to look after the changes. It was hard to handle as lots of people wanted to get their teams on.

Of course, I lost my job when the government changed in 1934. That same fall Orillia started. I was told by several that I wouldn't be able to work there. After 5 years of just driving around, the first few days the weather was warm; I would go home and wring my shirt. In the mornings I was so sore I could hardly get out of bed but when I got limbered up I was all right. After the first week, I could hold my own with any man. Some Sundays there would be something to fix that couldn't be done while work

Ice is thinner near centre

Red Cross reminds you that the ice surface on ponds, lakes and rivers is always thinner near the centre. Stay close to shore when you skate, and make sure the ice is at least four inches or 10 centimetres thick.

Dangerous ice

If you fall through the ice, don't panic. Shout for help, then grab the ice shelf nearest you and kick your feet so your body will be in a horizontal position. Even if the ice breaks, keep grabbing for another handhold. Once the ice holds, slowly inch and roll your way up on the ice. Crawl for several yards (metres) before standing. Guilty of careless driving

William C. Fry of Scarborough, found guilty of careless driving was fined $200 in the Provincial court in Minden on Nov. 23.

Fry had been travelling north of highway 519 on September 26 when he fell asleep and lost control of his vehicle. He skidded sideways and ended up upside down in the southbound lane. There was $2,000 damage done. The OPP arrived about one half hour later and met Fry who said he had been drinking after the accident at a friend's residence.

A case with similar details and consequences involved Tyrone R. Dewey of Gooderham. Dewey was charged with careless driving, failure to notify the Ministry of Transportation of a change of address.

On Sept. 4 on County Road 3 in Glamorgan he was southbound on a straight stretch of road. His vehicle went out of control and ended up in the left ditch upside down, with $2,000 damage. The accident occurred at 6:00 p.m. and the police were contacted at 7:40.

When the OPP arrived on the scene, Dewey was not there and could not be found. The OPP testified in court that Dewey was arrested on old warrants on September 6 and the needed information was obtained. The address on the licence was two years old according to the evidence.

Dewey was convicted on similar charges. Judge Inrig ruled called for a fine of $200 and costs on the careless driving charge, $50 and costs for failure to provide information and $75 and costs for the second offence of failure to change address. Total fines came to $331.

Man fined $200

John Maughan of RR2 Haliburton entered a plea of guilty in court on Nov. 23 to a charge of impaired driving.

Maughan was picked up after police followed him on

Oct. 16 from Mountain Street in Haliburton to where he stopped in a private driveway about one half mile distant. Police evidence stated that they had followed with lights flashing in an attempt to stop Maughan. Officers noticed an impaired condition and asked Maughan to accompany them to the Minden detachment and said that the effects of impairment were obvious.

There was a fine levied of $200 and $5 costs. An automatic suspension of driver's licence will follow.

Pleads guilty to possession

John Ashley of Mississauga, before the court in Minden on November 23, pleaded guilty to possession of narcotics.

Ashley was charged on Nov. 6 when searched by a police officer in the parking lot of the Rockcliffe Hotel. The officer had smelled what he thought was marijuana. There was no analysis sheet before the court on Tuesday, but Ashley admitted that the substance found was the narcotic referred to.

Since it was a first offence, Ashley was given a conditional discharge, meaning that no criminal record will be kept if Ashley abides by the conditions of a two year probation. He is to keep the peace and not to have any drugs or restricted substances in his possession.

Lawrence Pritchard autobiography was on, so I was called by the foreman to help. Before the dam was built I had bought the old machinery from the grist and sawmills, broke most of it up and sold it to a man from Lindsay, but I left one water wheel and 2 grist stones that were used for grinding grain to make flour from wheat. I left them on the side hill. They were gone sometime during the building of the dam and power house. I believe they were taken to Orillia.

Since I moved to this village in 1926, I had four houses built and lived in 3 of them for a few years.

I gave my time for over 3 weeks to help build the first Arena and gave my time on the wiring also. I gave a piece of my land to the township to enlarge the Parking Lot. I drove three men 60 miles to see a new Arena and get a bit of information. I was chosen with one other man to look after the building when being built. A few years later, a winter storm put the ice-surface end down. Again I worked over two weeks to help re-build that part. I was in Council at that time and served for some 30 years. After the fire in 1942 -- who suggested the Main Street be widened by 10 feet, who drove the iron stakes for a surveyor from Lindsay? The owners of the land were given the same amount of ground off Milne street behind. Who looked after the Ber to clean up after that fire? However the job was done and everything was cleaned up. Who gave $25 to the township to gravel Main Street for Dominion Day Sports one year?

July 1st was a big day in Minden, and I was asked to look after the Sports after we moved to Minden. Who won the 1 mile race for 5 Sports Days? I also did the assessment and tax collecting for 2 or 3 years before I moved to this village. There are many more things I have had my hands in, I was Warden in 1963, that was the year the County had to vote on Senior Citizens Home. Well the Two Votes in the morning were a Tie. After lunch I said we would have another vote and this time if a Tie, I would use my vote, so I did and now you see the results. I am not sure if my vote was legal or not but there was no comment on it. This Home business was too long, and I won't comment on it any further.

In 1967, I received the Silver Medal in recognition of Valuable Service to the Nation. This write-up is over my life except now I am in a wheel chair with both legs off at the knees.

This is Feb. 14, 1976. I would like to say that the dates may not be just right but close, my memory is not too good, especially in the 1895 period. When I was 14 or 15 I used to walk to Minden from Horseshoe Lake about 5 miles. On July 1st Sports Days my mother would give me 25 cents to spend and "don't lose it."

More next week

Comeback to tie

Minden losing 4-1 at the beginning of the second period.

At the end of the third period, the Minden Bantams fought their way to the lead, ahead by one goal, 6-5. Woodville put a goal in during the last minutes to tie the score, but Minden played good hockey throughout.

Also on Saturday the Mike's Milk Tri-County Atoms took a 10-0 loss to Sunderland.

The O.M.H.A. Yake's Electric/Red and White Atoms had a winning weekend with scores of 4-2 over Beaverton on Saturday and 4-3 over Ops on Sunday.

On Sunday the Tri-County Ronald Wrightman Pee Wees from Minden took on Haliburton and came out on top. The score was 7-3 for Minden. Goals for the home team were put in by Bret Porter, who scored three times. Craig Coneybeare who also put in three and Jack Burk who scored the remaining goal. Haliburton scorers were Paul Vuksic for two and Marla MacNaull.

Charge dismissed in court

A charge of carrying a loaded firearm in a vehicle laid against Burke Wickett of Willowdale was dismissed in the Provincial court in Hindon on Nov. 23.

Doug Marshall, a conservation officer with the Bracebridge branch of the Ministry of Natural Resources testified that he had stopped a half ton truck in Hindon township and had checked the gun of six hunters who were riding in the vehicle. He found Wickett's gun loaded with four unspent cartridges in the magazine.

Wickett, who had pleaded not guilty, said in his own defence that the rifle was not dangerous the way it was. He would have had to make two deliberate moves, he said, one to let the clip into the firing chamber and one to remove the safety catch before the gun could be considered loaded. He said that he was on his way out of the vehicle which was to stop a short distance from where it was stopped by the officer, and in order to save time, he had inserted the clip into the magazine. Wickett argued that his action was perhaps against the letter of the law but not against the spirit and Judge Inrig agreed.

The judge said that the officer was right in laying the charge, but since there was no clip in the chamber, the charge would be dismissed.

Concerned with developments

Robert Gorrie, Anson, Hindon and Minden councillor who is contesting the position of deputy reeve, is concerned with a number of developments that he feels are necessary in the area.

The library museum is a project which will not involve the tax dollar, but is one which Mr. Gorrie personally supports. He feels that it is needed for the community and would as well be a drawing card for others coming to the area.

Mr. Gorrie has noted that he has served in the past as the chairman of the street lighting committee, and feels that all ratepayers have a right to adequate lighting. Good lighting should be a consideration in the budget on an annual basis, Mr. Gorrie feels. Lighting has been installed to date in the Ingoldsby and Carnarvon areas as well as in Minden, and Mr. Gorrie has done his best to consider all requests for lighting as far as the budget will permit.

Mr. Gorrie also said that the re-development of the Minden by-pass is of importance to the development of the area, and should be considered by those on the council.
